

Professor Dov Feldberg, MD

Born in Vilnius, Lithuania, 1947. Married with 2 children. Graduated Medical School of Hadassah and Jerusalem University in 1971.

Military service as a Medical Officer 1973-1976, including the Yom Kipurim War.

Fellowship in Reproductive Medicine in 1984-1985 at the Yale New Haven Hospital with Prof. Alan DeCherney and Prof. Fred Naftolin.

In 1985 establishes the fourth IVF Unit in Israel, at the Rabin Medical Center, and Headed it until 1996.

Sabbatical in Reproductive Medicine in 1990-1991 at the Center for Reproductive Medicine, Cornell University Hospital, New York, with Prof. Zev Rosenwaks.

In 1993 receives Professor degree at the division of OB/GYN Medical School at Tel-Aviv University.

In 1994 appointed Vice Chairman of OB/GYN Division, Rabin Medical Center.

In 2001 appointed Acting Chairman OB/GYN Division, Rabin Medical Center.

From 2000, member of the board of the World Association of Reproductive Medicine (WARM) and from 2008 Executive Vice President of the Association.

From 2011 – Secretary of the Israeli Society of Gender Medicine (ISRAGEM).

From 2015 – Member of Reproductive Endocrinology and Infertility (REI)

Committee of the International Federation of Gynecology & Obstetrics (FIGO).

From 2017 – President of the Israeli Society of Psychosomatic Obstetrics & Gynecology (ISRAPOG).

From 2018 – Treasurer and Vice President of International Society of Gender Medicine (IGM).

About 120 publications in various journals mainly in the field of Reproductive Medicine. Several chapters in books and organization of National and International meetings.